

THE WORSHIP OF GOD

God's justice feels nothing like ours.
The best we can do is meet some outer measure
While God's only measure is God's self;
Not merely restoring a balance,
but tipping everything toward love and communion.

God's justice feels like grace,
Like generosity, like love itself.
God's justice is, in fact, mercy and restoration.
It is compassion, filling in all the gaps that we leave behind.

God's justice is an almighty and effective love
That leaves no one behind or forgotten,
Not even the so-called unworthy.
We are all worthy simply because God loves us.
God restores all things to their original creation
In God's heart.

THE ACT OF WORSHIP
The Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

August 7, 2022

Ten-thirty o'clock

PREPARATION AND PRAISE

The worship of God begins this morning as you enter the Sanctuary. You are encouraged to use these moments for meditation, reflection and prayer.

The Meditation of Preparation

“The Christian gospel is a summons to peace, calling for justice beyond anger, mercy beyond justice, forgiveness beyond mercy, love beyond forgiveness.”

-Wendell Berry

The Prelude “A Mighty Fortress Is Our God” Pethel

The Call to Worship “Rejoice in God, All Ye Lands” Coker

*O be joyful in God, all ye lands! Serve the Lord with gladness,
And come before His presence with a song.*

*The Processional Hymn No. 108 “Come, Christians, Join to Sing” MADRID

Come, Christians, join to sing Alleluia! Amen!
loud praise to Christ our King; Alleluia! Amen!
Let all, with heart and voice, before his throne rejoice;
praise is his gracious choice: Alleluia! Amen!

Come, lift your hearts on high, Alleluia! Amen!
let praises fill the sky; Alleluia! Amen!

He is our Guide and Friend; to us he'll condescend;
his love shall never end: Alleluia! Amen!

Praise yet our Christ again, Alleluia! Amen!
life shall not end the strain; Alleluia! Amen!
On heaven's blissful shore his goodness we'll adore,
singing forevermore, “Alleluia! Amen!”

Mindfulness-Based Adult Sunday School Class

Andy Frame and Ginger Parham are starting a new, weekly mindfulness-based Sunday School class at Northminster, beginning August 14. The purpose of the class is to create a space that studies, discusses and uses mindfulness and contemplative prayer techniques. The class will include discussion and meditation based on scripture and book studies from different Christian traditions, such as Richard Rohr, David Steindl-Rast, and Fr. William Johnston, while comparing those teachings and practices to non-Christian traditions, such as Buddhist and secular-mindfulness, to highlight the similarities and understand the differences. If you have any questions about the class, please contact Andy at (601) 500-1508 or frametown@gmail.com.

CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE

The Meditation of Confession

“God’s justice feels nothing like grudging demand, obligation, requirement, command, or prerequisite for love. It feels like largesse to anyone who knows it. It forces magnanimity from our stingy souls. God does not love us because we are just; God loves us so that we can be just in the same way that God is.”

INTERCESSION AND DEDICATION

*The Offertory Hymn No. 768 “I Come with Joy”

DOVE OF PEACE

I come with joy to meet my Lord, forgiven, loved and free,
in awe and wonder to recall his life laid down for me,
his life laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near, to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love in Christ’s communion bread,
in Christ’s communion bread.

As Christ breaks bread and bids us share, each proud division ends.
The love that made us, makes us one, and strangers now are friends,
and strangers now are friends.

And thus with joy we meet our Lord, his presence, always near,
is in such friendship better known; we see and praise him here,
we see and praise him here.

Together met, together bound, we’ll go our different ways,
and as his people in the world, we’ll live and speak his praise,
we’ll live and speak his praise.

The Anthem "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us" Jones

J J Coker, tenor
Jack Edwards, bass

Saviour, like a shepherd lead us,
Much we need thy tender care;
In thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use thy folds prepare:
Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
thou hast bought us, thine we are.

We are thine, do thou befriend us;
Be the guardian of our way;
Keep thy flock, from sin defend us,
Seek us when we go astray;
Blessed Jesus, Hear thy children when they pray.

Early let us seek thy favor,
Early let us do thy will;
Blessed Lord and only saviour,
With thy love our bosoms fill:
Blessed Jesus, Blessed Jesus,
thou hast loved us, love us still.

If you would like to unite with this covenant community, please express this desire by coming forward at this point of the service.

TIME OF RESPONSE

“The Lord has told you, mortal one, what is good. And what does the Lord require? To do justice. To love kindness. And to walk humbly with your God.”
-Micah 6:8

*The Recessional Hymn No. 708 “Blest Be the Tie That Binds” DENNIS

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love;
the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.

Before our Father’s throne we pour our ardent prayers;
our fears, our hopes, our aims are one, our comforts and our cares.

We share each other’s woes, each other’s burdens bear;
and often for each other flows the sympathizing tear.

When we are called to part, it gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart, and hope to meet again.

Communion and Children

Communion Sundays are special times of worship at Northminster, and we want all of our children to feel as included as possible. It has been a long-standing tradition at Northminster that each family will decide whether or not non-baptized children can receive Communion. Please know that children who have not yet been baptized and whose families decide that they need to wait to receive Communion can still come forward to receive a blessing from the deacons who are serving Communion. To signify that they wish to receive the blessing but not Communion, these children simply need to cross their arms over their chests, as if in prayer, when they approach a deacon who is serving the bread. Hopefully, this option will provide non-baptized children who do not partake in Communion a way to more fully participate in the worship life of our faith community. Jesus Christ said, “Let the little children come to me.” Here at Northminster, our desire is to be as welcoming of children as the Savior we follow.
